Camp Survival Camp
British Columbia
Style: Triple IPA
473ml

Located in the Fraser Valley in BC, Camp is a community-based brewery and tasting room. It's 100% locally owned, with grassroots in the homebrewing community and a strong passion for craft beer. Survival Camp is certainly a force to be reckoned with, sitting at 9.5% abv, but undeniably crushable. The hop bill includes Citra, Mosaic and El Dorado hops. It's loaded with a tropical fruit blanket of juicy deliciousness.

4 Origines Botanik
Quebec
Style: Witbier
473ml

The mission of 4 Origines Brewing is to commemorate Montreal's brewing heritage, as the city continues to thrive. This tasty beer is a collaboration with the Cirka Distillery, creating a very unique twist. They've brewed a traditional Witbier and added some gin botanicals including juniper berries, green cardamom, orange peel and seeds of paradise. Be sure to give this can a little swirl before pouring.

The Establishment Cool Waves
Alberta
Style: Hazy IPA
473ml

The Establishment is a brewery and taproom located in Calgary's growing Barley Belt brewing district. The team behind this brewery has always had a great passion for beer so we're always on high alert for every release. 'Cool Waves' is everything you've come to expect from their black can hazy series. Simply put, it's a juicy treat, combining a glorious mix of fresh pineapple, peach and red grapefruit.

Superflux Wonderlove
British Columbia
Style: Hazy IPA w/Phantasm
473ml

Superflux Beer Company is a fantastic brewery nestled between Strathcona and East Vancouver. With this location, they're joining a number of other breweries, that have had beer lovers flocking to this area for a while now. Wonderlove is a mouthwatering IPA brewed with 'Phantasm'. This is a powder derived from New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc grapes, known for creating aromas of grapefruit and cantaloupe.

Winterlong
British Columbia
Style: Stout
473ml

Marko and Meghan Marjanovic have been homebrewing for 10 years and finally made a huge jump, opening their own brewery in 2014. Their theory was simply brewing beers they wanted to drink, with extra bold flavours. This rich stout called Sweater Weather; will certainly keep you warm on those frisky nights. It pours jet black and has aromas of black fruit, chocolate, oatmeal cookies, coffee bean and spiced licorice.

Dog Island Lip Pointer
Alberta
Style: Double IPA
473ml

Dog Island Brewing was founded in 2013 by partners Ben Fiddler and Chad Paulson. In addition to being trade workers in the oil patch, both were also avid home brewers in their hometown of Slave Lake. Just recently, the team at Dog Island announced their yearly release called Lip Pointer. It's a double IPA brewed with a whirlpool of Mosaic, Citra and El Dorado hops. You'll taste a mix of tropical and citrus fruit with a hint of light pine on a warm finish.
